How Israel helps heal the world

Has someone you love and care about been saved or healed by recent advances in medical technology?

What are the chances that the life science innovations had their roots in Israel?

The answer may surprise you: one in four!

As covered by Times of Israel March 10, 2016.

How Israel improves our lives

- Israel is a leader in alternative energies such as green-tech, clean-tech and solar energy
- Israeli start-ups are providing potable water solutions to drought-stricken countries in Africa
- Israel helps feed a hungry world: Israeli agro-tech is growing sturdier, healthier, cheaper sources of essential nutrients that will help feed developing nations
- Israel is a leader in airport travel security - first to develop a nanotechnology-based bomb detection chip
- This year, the 4,000th child was saved by Save a Child's Heart: 4-year old Sanusey, from Gambia

A great investment destination!

“Israeli tech scene second only to Silicon Valley”

— Google exec says (June, 2016)
